Imitating our Father

Young boys are well known for their role models. They seek to be like their favorite basketball point guard, football quarterback, or baseball pitcher. Once they choose their role model, they begin to imitate them. They wear the same necklaces, shoes, and apparel simply because their role models are wearing them.

Before they choose sports players as their role model, their role model is usually their father. Just like they wear the clothing of their favorite sports player, they begin trying to dress and act like their fathers.

In Ephesians 5:1, Paul writes, "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children:". The idea of being a "follower" does not mean to follow down a path or follow on social media. It means to imitate. Just as children imitate their father, we should seek to imitate our Heavenly Father. In order to do this, Paul later says in verse 3-5 that we are to part with sin so we can draw near to God and then imitate Him as dear children.

Now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God? JOEL 2:12-14
