Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him....Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. And I myself also am persuaded...that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. ROMANS 15:10-11, 13-14

Jesus: The Final Days

As we see February walk out the door, we welcome the month of March as we inch closer and closer to Easter. For the next couple of weeks, we are going to be looking into the last days of Jesus on this Earth in anticipation for Easter. We will be looking at His Prayer, Trial, Cross, Burial, and of course, His Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Humankind has a long history of dreadfulness when faced with death. However, thanks to the final days of Jesus, we no longer must fear death. Now, because of Jesus, when our last days on this Earth arrive, we know that what comes next is solely a transition into the beginning of eternity. Praise be to God that, through Jesus, we may have life and life more abundantly because of what Jesus faced during His final days.

I hope this new series will bring an excitement to you and our church as we examine what Jesus went through leading up to His Resurrection, when He conquered death and the grave, giving us the same victory over these enemies, a victory that is only possible by having a personal relationship with Him.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today marks the first Sunday of a new quarter, so we will be receiving our special offerings for Church Camp at the end of both services.
